Dear Executive Director:

The Federal Bar Association is sponsoring an outstanding series of continuing legal education events this Spring. Some attorneys (and for a few of these subjects, non-attorneys are appropriate registrants) in your agency or department may already be planning to attend one or more. But to be sure we have reached all those who would benefit by the substance of the programs we are enclosing these brochures for your arrangement with appropriate Washington and field offices to assure adequate representation from your agency.

Enclosed are brochures on the following:

May 10-11 -- Openness in Government, San Francisco

May 14-15 -- Federal Civil Practice, Washington, D.C.

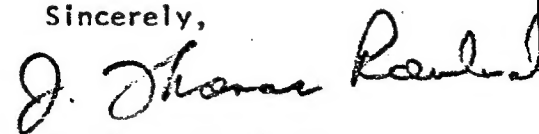

May 20-22 -- Openness in Government (May 20-21) and Federal Trial Practice (May 21-22), known as our Southeastern Regional Conference, Miami Beach

June 2-4 -- Openness in Government (June 3-4) and Dispute Resolution in Federal Labor Relations
(June 2), known as our Great Lakes Regional Conference, Chicago

The quality programs of the Association are offered at low registration fees -- less than half of the fee scales of other nationally and regionally coordinated CLE programs. We are able to hold down our costs because so many government officials help us promote attendance by bringing the information to the attention of those who should attend. We appreciate your cooperation in continuing this process.

Please let us know if you would like to have an additional supply of any of the enclosed brochures.

Sincerely,

J. Thomas Rouland
Executive Director
